Bluegrass Festival

Wine and Music Festival

Mountain Bike Race

Granite Hill has proudly hosted the internationally acclaimed Gettysburg Bluegrass Festival since 1979! This bi-annual event is a celebration of both traditional and contemporary bluegrass music, with a mix of classic country, newgrass, and other related acoustic styles. Concerts are held on a stunning timber-frame stage, set against the picturesque backdrop of our 150 acres of rolling farmland.

Each festival features engaging workshops led by your favorite artists, meet-and-greet opportunities with performers, a variety of food trucks offering diverse cuisine, arts and crafts vendors, and many other activities to enjoy during the festival. The 88th and 89th Gettysburg Bluegrass Festivals will take place on May 15-18 and August 14-17, 2025, respectively. For more details, visit www.gettysburgbluegrass.com and follow us on Facebook for updates.

After a successful relocation in 2024 to Granite Hill, The Chamber of Gettysburg & Adams County is thrilled to return and present the 21st Annual Gettysburg Wine & Music Festival on September 6 & 7, 2025! This exciting event invites you to savor exceptional wines from Pennsylvania wineries, spirits from local distilleries, do a little shopping, and enjoy a diverse lineup of live music. Special camping packages are available, along with convenient shuttle service to area hotels. We can't wait to welcome you back for another unforgettable weekend!
